Unit 10 You're supposed to shake hands.同步测试题

听力材料

A)请听下面8段对话。

1. W: John, what am I supposed to do when I am with an American family?
   M: It's very rude to say you're full. If you don't want any more food, you should just say, "It was delicious."
2. M: You have been to Switzerland before. Can you tell me something about it?
   W: Switzerland is very beautiful and you have to be sure about what you are supposed to do to be polite.
   M: That's what I want to know.
3. M: Is Bill in the classroom now?
   W: Yes. He and his classmates are having a welcome party for their new classmate from India now.
4. M: Sorry, I'm late.
   W: Ted, the meeting has begun at nine, and you're ten minutes late.
   M: I won't do that again.
5. M: I'll go to an American friend's home for dinner tomorrow evening. What should I take?
   W: You can take some flowers.
   M: Good idea. Thank you for your advice.
6. M: Mom, has Kate gone to her friend's party?
   W: No, she's talking with your dad in the yard.
   M: Oh, what are they talking about?
   W: They are talking about how to behave at the dinner table.
7. M: What are people in France supposed to do when they meet for the first time?
   W: They are supposed to kiss. How about in Korea?
   M: In Korea, they are expected to bow.
   W: Sounds interesting!
8. W: Do you think your daily work is boring, Mike?
   M: Boring? No, it's interesting. Because we are all active and creative in the office.

B)请听下面5段对话或独白。

请听第1段材料,回答第9、10小题。

W: Tony, your sister is sleeping. Would you turn off the TV and go to do your homework?
M: Oh, I've already finished my homework. Could I watch it for a little while?
W: OK, but you'd better turn it down.
M: All right, Mom.

请听第2段材料,回答第11、12小题。

M: You look a little unhappy, Molly. What's the matter?
W: My new friend and I decided to meet at the school gate this morning. She was supposed to arrive at 10:00, but she arrived at 10:20.
M: Oh, so you were angry.
W: Yeah. In my country, when you meet a friend, you must be on time. If you're late, your friend may get angry.
M: I see. By the way, where does your new friend come from?
W: She is from Colombia.
M: No wonder she arrived late. In Colombia people don't mind if someone is a little late sometimes.

请听第3段材料,回答第13至第15小题。

W: Hello, Jim! Next Tuesday is Father's Day. What are you going to buy for your father?
M: I'm going to buy him a watch.
W: Sounds good! I think a watch is a nice present.
M: What are you going to buy for your father, Monica?
W: I'm going to buy him a beautiful tie. But now I don't have enough money.
M: Well, you can borrow some from Jenny. I know that she has a lot of pocket money.
W: That's a good idea. Thank you.

请听第4段材料,回答第16至第18小题。

W: Hi, Tony! You must be very excited about leaving for Japan.
M: Yes, but I'm also a little nervous because I know little about Japanese customs.
W: Don't worry. I have been to Japan twice. Maybe I can help you.
M: Thanks. What are people supposed to do in Japan when they meet for the first time?
W: They're supposed to bow.
M: What should I wear if I'm invited to a party?
W: You had better wear a suit.
M: I see. Thank you for your advice.
W: You're welcome.

请听第5段材料,回答第19至第22小题。

Last summer holiday, I traveled to South Korea with my mother. My pen pal Li invited us to her home. We got to Li's home 15 minutes late because of heavy traffic. We took off shoes before we came into Li's home. Then I kissed Li and her mother, but it was wrong! I was supposed to bow instead. Then we had dinner together. To my surprise, we should sit on the floor and cross legs throughout the meal. The food that Li's mother cooked looked very nice and I couldn't wait to eat. However, when I put the food into my mouth, I found it was too spicy. Luckily, Li passed me some soup at once. My funny look made everyone laugh. Later, I got to know drinking some soup first is one of the table manners there.

Though I made many mistakes at first, Li and her parents were very friendly to me and we had a good time there. During the visit, I learned more about South Korea and its customs.

C)请听下面一段独白。

Hello, I'm Li Lei. Let me introduce some manners in a dinner party in the USA. When you go to a dinner party in the USA, you'd better bring a small present. It's nice to bring some drinks, such as pear juice, beer or something like these. You should arrive on time or no more than five minutes late. Don't get there early. If you're going to be more than fifteen minutes late, you should call them and let them know. Try to be relaxed and polite at the table. If you don't know how to use the knife and fork, don't be nervous. You can watch others and follow them. If you still have no idea, ask the person next to you.

Dear Alice,

I'm very glad to hear from you. I'd like to tell you some customs of giving gifts in my country. First, I think you need to find out what your Chinese teacher likes. Choosing the gift that your teacher is interested in is a good idea. Second, don't pack the gift with black or white wrapping paper, because black and white are considered to be unlucky colors in China. Third, don't buy your teacher a clock, a pair of shoes or some pears, because Chinese people think these things have bad meanings as gifts.

I hope my advice can help you.

Yours,
Wei Hua
