Unit 7 Teenagers should be allowed to choose their own clothes.同步测试题

听力材料

A)请听下面8段对话。

1. W: Do you often play table tennis?
   M: Not very often. I only play it once a week. I like playing football better. I play football four times a week.
2. M: I hear Miss Wang punished Jack this morning. Do you know why?
   W: Yes, because he wore strange clothes to school today.
3. M: Are you allowed to watch TV on school nights, Sally?
   W: Yes, I am. But I am not allowed to play computer games.
4. M: Excuse me, madam. Taking photos is not allowed in the museum.
   W: Oh, sorry, I won't do that again.
5. M: Jane, I regret talking back to Mum.
   W: Well, after dinner you could say sorry to Mum.
   M: Good idea. I will.
6. M: Lily, do you know where Lucy is?
   W: Well, look! She is skating on the playground. She has skated for half an hour.
7. W: Jim, I have just got my driver's license. I'm very happy.
   M: Congratulations, Mum. From now on you can drive your car to work instead of taking the subway.
8. M: What are you going to do this weekend, Mary?
   W: I'm going to the zoo with David. He will drive me there.
   M: Oh, you had better not take his car. I don't think fifteen-year-olds should be allowed to drive.

请听第1段材料,回答第9、10小题。

W: Jack, you looked sad this morning. What happened?
M: I forgot to wear my school uniform, so my teacher was angry with me.
W: Do you like your school uniforms?
M: No, I don't like them at all. They look ugly. I think students should be allowed to wear their own clothes.
W: I agree with you.

请听第2段材料,回答第11、12小题。

W: Good morning, sir. Can I help you?
M: Sure, thanks. I bought a white skirt for my daughter here yesterday afternoon, but it's too big for her. Can I change it for a smaller one?
W: Oh, sorry. All the white ones have been sold out. How about this orange one?
M: Well, my daughter doesn't like orange.
W: How about this blue one?
M: Oh, it looks nice. I'll take it.

请听第3段材料,回答第13至第15小题。

M: Amy, I want to leave the musuem.
W: Why? Don't you like the paintings?
M: I think they're really boring.
W: It is still early. Let's stay here for a few minutes more then.
M: OK. By the way, do you have any food? I'm a bit hungry.
W: Yes. But look at the sign. Eating is not allowed here.
M: That's too bad.
W: Why don't you read a news-paper there? I'll walk around and meet you soon.
M: OK.

请听第4段材料,回答第16至第18小题。

W: Hi, everybody. I'm Cathy. Welcome back to "The Problem Line" on radio. Today, we're going to talk about problems between children and parents. Okay, it's 8 o'clock now. It's time for the call. Hello, who's calling?
M: Hello. My name's David.
W: Hi, David. Welcome to "The Problem Line". What's your problem?
M: I have problems with my mom. Every time we talk about something, we argue with each other.
W: You shouldn't argue with your mom.
M: I know. But she always wants to rule my life. I can't even decide what to wear on weekends.
W: That's too bad. Why not try to have a long talk with her?
M: I tried, but she never listens to me. She thinks I should listen to her because I'm her child.
W: I think you should tell your mom how you really feel. Tell her you are growing up and you can make some decisions by yourself. I hope things will work out.
M: OK. I'll have a try. Thank you.

请听第5段材料,回答第19至第22小题。

I'm Tony. My parents are very strict with me. They have made some rules for me. First, I have to finish my homework on time. Second, I'm not allowed to play computer games, even in my free time. Third, I must do some chores, such as making the bed and cleaning my bedroom. Though I hate the strict rules, my life has become more wonderful because of them. For example, I have improved my grades and living skills. But I always think the second rule is unfair to me. I hope I will be allowed to play computer games on weekends. It will make me more relaxed.

C)请听下面一段独白。

Hello, listeners. This is Doctor Wilson from Hospital Radio. Before our music program at four, I'm going to repeat some of our hospital rules. The visiting hours are from 2:30 to 3:30 in the afternoon and from 7:00 to 8:00 in the evening. But remember only two people can see you at the same time. The other rules are about our hours. We wake you up at 7 o'clock, and breakfast is at 8 o'clock, lunch is at noon, there is a tea time at 3:30 and supper is at 6 o'clock. You can have all your meals at the dining room on the third floor. We don't allow smoking in the rooms. If you do need to smoke, there are special areas where it is allowed.

Should teenagers be allowed to do part-time jobs?

Now many students would like to do some part-time jobs on weekends or during the holidays. But some parents disagree. They think doing part-time jobs is a waste of time and it's unsafe. Teenagers are easily cheated by bad people.

In my opinion, teenagers should be allowed to do some part-time jobs. By doing so, they can experience different lives and get more knowledge that they can't get from the textbooks. Part-time jobs offer teenagers chances to improve their abilities of dealing with problems.

Anyhow, safety is the most important. Teenagers should learn to protect themselves when looking for part-time jobs.
